INSIDE TO OUT: FOUND OUT AROUND THE TABLE

LUKE 24:13-35
REV. DAVID NEUEN

We remember that resurrection hope is not meant to keep us behind closed doors, but to move us outward into the world. We are moving "Inside to Out"!

In this week's story, Jesus meets people where they are, showing that the first step in sharing good news is through building relationships. Hope is discovered by walking alongside others, listening, sharing your story, and finding a place together at the table.

What makes this relationship building difficult or frightening? How might we learn from Jesus's Emmaus road approach for our outreach witness?

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Along the road to Emmaus, Jesus taught two despairing disciples.
People: Christ abides with us and walks with us on the way.
Leader: Around the table, Jesus made himself known through the breaking of bread.
People: Christ abides with us and walks with us on the way.
Leader: We gather from many places, bringing our stories, celebrations, frustrations, and tears.
People: Christ abides with us and walks with us on the way.
Leader: Resurrection hope is growing because
People: Christ abides with us and walks with us on the way.

More Love To Thee, O Christ

OPENING PRAYER

Risen Christ, be at our side on the journey of faith helping us welcome others and listen to their stories. Grant us the courage to be open to new relationships so that other people may know you through us and that we may know you through them. Ignite our hearts to bear witness to your grace found in the meeting of one another in the church, on the street, around the table, and everywhere inbetween. Amen.

TIME FOR PRAYER

MORNING PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER 895

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

GIVING MOMENT

GIVING

Because God gives, we give.
Thank you for your generosity.

OFFERING PRAYER

Pastor: Like the disciples at Emmaus, we offer what we have. They offered their company, their table, their bread. We invite you to be with us, Jesus, as we offer you our love, our devotion, these gifts.

People: May our eyes be opened to your holy presence among us, now and always. Amen.

CARING FOR YOUNG ADULTS

On Sunday, May 3 at 6:30pm in our Sanctuary, we welcome the highly-esteemed Circle City Ringers, a semi-professional handbell ensemble from Indianapolis. Their program will include repertoire from multiple genres, sacred and secular, beautiful and technically demanding, including works such as "Fly Me to the Moon", "Our Great Redeemer's Praise", "Pirates of the Caribbean" and "Mama Mia!" The program is family-friendly and free of charge. We hope you'll be there!

CARING FOR GOD'S CREATION

Earth Day, celebrated each year on April 22, gives us an opportunity to rethink how we care for God's creation.

To help, Eco-Action will offer special recycling collections on April 26 for printer ink cartridges, chargers, flash drives, iPads, and both rechargeable and single-use batteries. After April 26, the collection bin will be moved to the Donation Depot. We will also provide resources to help you find places to recycle items that are harder to dispose of responsibly.

SPRING CLEANUP DAY

Join the Town of Plainfield's Spring Trash Cleanup Day on Saturday, May 2, from 9am-12pm. Together, we will help clean and care for a designated area in our community. The town will provide all supplies. You just bring yourself, your family, and a willingness to serve.

WHAT'S HAPPENING WITH PUMC YOUTH?

Youth Worship — Sunday, April 26
10am • Room 200
This Sunday: Forgiveness Takes Time

We live in a world where everything is fast—and when forgiveness doesn't work instantly, we assume it doesn't work at all. But the truth is, forgiveness isn't a quick fix; it's a process that takes time. Looking at the story of Genesis, we see that real healing often happens slowly, over years—not moments. Jesus even teaches that forgiveness isn't one decision, but something we return to again and again. The good news is that even if you're not "over it" yet, you're not doing it wrong—you're just in the process of healing.

JOHN 10:1–10

Sunday, May 3

Open It: Who have some of the most recognizeable voices? What makes those voices familiar to you?

Explore It: In this story, what do the sheep, shepherd, and stranger represent? Explore the relationship between the shepherd and the sheep. What contrasts do you notice between the shepherd and the stranger/thief? What does Jesus mean by likening himself to the gate for the sheepfold? What might "life to the full" mean in this passage?

Get It: What does this passage suggest about how trust is formed between the shepherd and the sheep? What moment was significant for you spiritually in terms of hearing God's voice and responding? How does God's consistency shape our ability to trust God? What "outside voices" compete for our attention or loyalty today?

Apply It: Listen for the shepherd's voice by setting aside atleast 5 minutes asking in reflection, "Whose voice am I following today?" Show up consistently by reaching out to someone 2–3 times this week as a witnesses of steady presence.
